WHERE WAS NASH?

Roosevelt Was the Whole Thing In Today's Demonstration.

Nash, Like Rip Van Winkle, Soliloquized:
"They Have Forgotten Me."

Absence of Foraker and Bushnell Men Was Ominous.

Crowd Was Large, But Not Up to Expectation of Managers.

With every condition in favor of assembling an immense crowd on the occasion of the opening of the Ohio Republican campaign—fine weather, free railroad tickets, free refreshments, and the best oratorical talent in the party, the number attending the opening today is more than disappointing to the Hanna management.

While there is a liberal representation of the Hanna wing of the party present, the total absence of friends of Senator Foraker and Gov. Bushnell is very significant to those accustomed to seeing their faces at campaign openings in the past.

The utter lack of enthusiasm on the part of the crowd, coupled with the ominous absence of the Bushnell-Foraker contingent, had a distressing effect upon the party leaders. It was an indication of what may happen in November if the absentees in like manner remain away from the polls.

The first brood of Judge Nash's chickens have come home to roost.
And there are more to follow.

The first real enthusiasm displayed
by the people was when Gov.
Roosevelt arrived at the head of the Cleveland delegation, and was driven down Main st. in an open carriage with Mark Hanna.

Mark conducted himself with an air of complacency and satisfaction as the people cheered, which seemed to indicate that he felt: "It's for me."

Chilly Reception.
The reception of Col. Dick and Senator Hanna at the Hotel Buchtel was chilly. Only a few people recognized them and these applauded very feebly.

Gov. Roosevelt seemed to be the idol of the Republicans. All the cheers were for him. All the banners read "Welcome Gov. Roosevelt." No where was there a banner welcoming Judge Nash, and no voice was raised to cheer him. Judge Nash was there—but that's all. His personality, like this candidacy, was forgotten in the presence of Roosevelt—and Mark.

THE CROWD.

Only Eight Thousand People Came into Akron on Trains.

The DEMOCRAT had men stationed at every depot. A careful count was kept of all the trains entering the city. Not counting the regular trains, 93 extra coaches were brought into Akron. Agent C. D. Honold says that 60 passengers can be seated in a car and that upon an average of 75 people were in each of the cars
coming into Akron today.

Taking this estimate as a basis for computation the 93 coaches brought in 6,975 people.

The DEMOCRAT estimates that more than 8,000 people came into Akron on the regular and special trains.

Allowing an equal number who came into Akron from surrounding towns by their own conveyances and electric cars, which is considered a very liberal estimate, there are not to exceed 16,000 out-of-town people

THE WEATHER:

Fair tonight and Sunday.

morning. The Young Republicans' club was at the Union station to meet Gov. Roosevelt and the Cleveland Tippecanoe club. Thirty mounted escort was also present and the Eighth Regiment, besides 3,000 people assembled to meet the hero of San Juan hill.

Gov. Roosevelt and Senator Mark Hanna rode in the first carriage with J. P. Zerbe and Myron T. Herrick of Cleveland. Many people crowded about the carriage to grasp the hand of Gov. Roosevelt.

Met Roosevelt.

The committee delegated to meet Governor Roosevelt at Cleveland was composed of the following named persons: L. C. Miles, chairman; Judge U. L. Marvin, J. Park Alexander, Judge J. A. Kohler, Geo. A. Barnes, C. C. Goodrich, J. H. Andrews, A. J. Rowley, Judge N. D. Tibbals, M. B. Goodyear and Dayton A. Doyle. The party left for Cleveland at 6 o'clock Saturday morning.

Saturday forenoon was principally devoted to the reception of visiting delegations. Mounted escorts were in waiting at each of the stations, and when the crowds would arrive they were escorted in great style to the places assigned them. The places to which the various clubs were assigned follow:

Platoon of police; grand marshal and staff; Foster's band, Akron.

When the parade was formed the bell at the Central Engine house sounded 18 times when the carriages containing speakers passed through the lines of divisions.

AT GRACE PARK

The Decorations Were Profuse—The Program Enacted.

Grace park is profusely decorated with flags. A large platform has been built at the south side of the band pavilion. The sides of the platform are draped in branches covered with green leaves. Tall flag poles, from whose tops float large flags, are arranged about the speakers' platform, and smaller flags are everywhere in evidence. Palms and flowers are tastily arranged about the stand, and bunting encircles the larger flag poles. The speakers' stand is large, seating quite a number of people, the speakers, officers of the meeting and representatives of the press.

The program enacted at the stand was as follows:

Music by the Columbus Glee Club; invocation, Dr. Ira A. Priest, president of Buchtel college; music by the Columbus Glee club; introductory address, Hon. N. D. Tibbals, president of the day; address, Hon. George K. Nash; music Columbus Glee club; address, Hon. Theodore Roosevelt; music by the Columbus Glee club; "America" by the combined bands.

Commenced as Reporter.

Geo. K. Nash commenced his business career as a reporter on the Ohio State Journal. The newspapers throughout Ohio have spoken of Mrs. A. E. Babcock, who is traveling with him, as his daughter, when she is his stepdaughter. She is the daughter of Wm. Babcock, now deceased, and the wife of Rev. Babcock, pastor of the Episcopal church in Columbus.

TEDDY ARRIVES.

Came With the Tipps From Cleveland on Special Train.

Gov. Roosevelt, Mark Hanna and party, arrived at 12:45 from Cleveland. The party was in charge of the escort sent from Akron Saturday

THE PARADE.

There Were Just 2,918 Men In Line.

The parade was one of the largest and finest ever seen in Akron, being up to the McKinley parade in 1893.

There were 2,918 men, women and children in line, in carriages, bands, horseback and afoot.

There were 535 men in the bands alone.

Little hall, Main st.; Youngstown Club, Hotel Buchtel; Canton Club, Hotel Buchtel; Spanish-American soldiers, Schoeninger block, 3rd floor. Spanish-American soldiers met on Market st., front of their headquarters, at 12:30 o'clock and organized. Most of the delegations had bands with them.

ROOSEVELT TALKS.

Says He Is Glad to Be In Akron—His First Visit.

Gov. Roosevelt said to a DEMOCRAT reporter: "I am certainly very glad to be here on this occasion, and I am glad to see the enthusiasm displayed. This is my first visit to Akron."

Just then some one came forward and said: "I shall be glad to join your Rough Riders, Colonel, when they come out to boom you for the presidency."

"Do you hear many such expressions?" Col. Roosevelt was asked by the reporter.

"Oh, occasionally," he replied.

GRATIFIED.

ADDRESS TO OHIO DEMOCRACY.

By A. C. Bachtel, President Ohio Association of Democratic Clubs.

Democrats of Ohio:—

When the history of this American Republic shall be written, one of the resplendent stars that will shine forth in all its glory, in those pages, will be the part taken by the Democratic party of America since the foundation of the Republic on this continent. Not in all the history of the peoples of the earth is there any record of a political party that has, out of the necessities arising from a Democratic form of government came, into existence, lived a full century, and has, upon entering the second century, demonstrated to the world that it is now more alert and alive to the welfare of American citizens than ever in her honored history.

This being true what citizen of Ohio, or this nation, cannot be proud of being affiliated with this grand old party of the common people. No man who lives in this age of the world can be ignorant of the trend of affairs in this nation since the War of Rebellion came to a close. All students of politics cannot help but recognize the encroachment not only upon human liberty and independence of thought, but that centralization of power, in the hands of men, who to gratify selfish purposes, are ready and willing to stultify even the Declaration of Independence or the Constitution of this nation, if need be, to thwart the will of the people. Is it not time the voters of Ohio should be aroused to the dangers that threaten the body politic?

As every man values the privilege of American citizenship he should study the principles that the Democratic party promulgated in its platform recently adopted at Zanesville, and upon which we shall wage our battle until the ballots are cast in November.

It is not only important that every Democrat should stand firm in the discharge of his duty, but that every citizen should consider whether his interest does not lead them into the ranks of the party of the people this year. The result in Ohio this fall will indicate largely what will be the course in National politics next year. No Democrat in Ohio should find any cause not to support our State ticket, at the head of which stands that Prince of Democrats, Hon. John R. McLean, the man who had the courage to stand single and alone in 1896 in defense of the cause of the American citizens, who stood for the Chicago platform.

Democrats of Ohio, let every man do his duty. Arise to the importance of getting out every Democratic vote on election day. When you have done this, the greatest victory ever won in this state will have been achieved. Then with the satisfaction of a work well commenced we can take up our cause again and battle loyally for William Jennings Bryan, the man who stands nearer the hearts of the American people than any man that has risen in this nation. Their confidence in him is so absolute that they will surely crown him next year with the highest honor possible for this nation to bestow upon one of her citizens.

Let us organize clubs, to be permanent institutions for disseminating Democratic principles. Only by thorough organization can we accomplish the results that are dear to every true Democrat. We can make the Ohio Association of Democratic clubs the most powerful factor for Democratic success ever organized in this State. The Democracy of Ohio expects every man to do his duty, and never falter. It will be done.

ALLEY GANG.

Akron Boasts of an Aggregation Second to None.

Akron boasts of no roof garden, but it can put up as good a Hogan's alley aggregation as can be found anywhere.

Every evening the sound of the bass drum lends its noise to the tin can melody, and the toot of the tin horn as a crowd of fantastically attired urchins march up and down Maiden Lane alley.

At the head of the parade marches the drum major, who, by the way, is also an acrobat of no mean acquirements. His attire, would after night, cause him to be taken for "Calico Jack," but he puts up good tumbling, all the same. Following him is the Irish comedian, resplendent in a suit of green as emerald in color as the "aud sod" itself. Then there are the dancing girls, the stake-pullers, clowns and stage managers, about 15 dogs, nine cats and a goat hitched to a little wagon bringing up the rear. When you hear the music in the alley the Hogan Kids are out.

STOLEN RING

Found In Akron Pawn Shop—Brought Here From Canton.

A short time ago the residence of George Nauman, in South Walnut street, was burglarized and several rings and other property stolen, says the Canton News-Democrat. A few days ago Miss Ida Nauman was visiting friends in Akron, and she visited several pawn shops and succeeded in discovering one of her rings there. The broker was forced to give up the ring to the young lady, who was accompanied by a policeman. The other ring has not been found, but the Akron officials are investigating, and their clue as already obtained will probably lead to the arrest of the burglar. The local officials believe that the crime was committed by local parties and the goods were taken to Akron and pawned for them by other parties.

TO SLEEP SOUND
Leave Off the Coffee.

A city solicitor for a grocery in Americus, Georgia, reports that in calling upon a Mrs. W. F. Marsh, found her complaining greatly about the loss of sleep and nervousness in the family. He suggested that perhaps the trouble was caused by coffee drinking, and advised that they use Postum Food Coffee in its place. A box of the new Food Coffee was sent down to them, and at a call the second day Mrs. Marsh stated that about three o'clock in the morning she was suddenly awakened by her husband jumping up to dress, stating that he must get off to work. She looked at the clock and told him it was only three o'clock, and he must have made a mistake. He said he felt there was certainly something wrong with the clock, for he had slept his usual time, was perfectly refreshed and had his night's rest out. The good sound sleep continued night after night after leaving off the coffee and using in its place the Postum Cereal Food Coffee.

The solicitor further says: "I told this experience of Mr. and Mrs. Marsh to Mr. H. F. Davenport, and after the first night's trial he told me he had never slept better in years. Mrs. Davenport was in the store this afternoon, pronouncing it wonderful. "Some of the doctors here are strong advocates of Postum Food Coffee. One lady, Mrs. W. H. Howard, buys it by the dollar's worth, and is getting all her guests and acquaintances to use it. The president of one of our banks uses Postum Cereal Food Coffee to the exclusion of all other beverages. It meets with the approval of some of our best citizens." T. W. Callaway, of Gatewood Grocery, Americus, Ga.

DAMAGES

Asked By Wife of a Former Resident of Akron.

Mrs. Antony Williams today filed a suit for damages here, says a Muncie, Ind., special. Williams is extensively interested in the Joplin, Mo., zinc mines, where he has resided for a year, while his wife and son were here at a hotel. He was at one time a rich hardware merchant at Akron, Ohio, and came to Muncie to manage the extensive land interests of Colonel A. L. Conger, where the suburb of Congerville now stands. The allegations given to the press are simply cruel treatment.
